

PRIME

Postdoctoral Research, Instruction, and Mentoring Experience
Postdoctoral Research program

APPLICATION DEADLINES

For a January, 2016 start date is November 15, 2015.

For a July, 2016 start date is March 15, 2016

Applications after those deadlines will be considered if positions remain available.

Supported by NIGMS Institutional Research and Academic Career Development Award (IRACDA)

PRIME GOAL: to develop highly skilled biomedical researchers who can also teach the next generation of health professionals.

Further information and the Application can be found at:

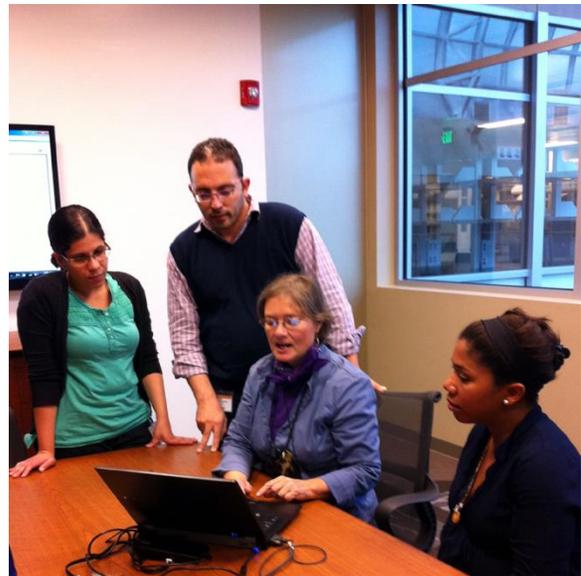

<http://www.wakehealth.edu/PhysPharm/Training-Grants/PRIME-Program/PRIME-Program.htm>

Allyn C. Howlett, PhD

Professor, Department of Physiol & Pharmacol
Director, Office of Postdoctoral Affairs
PI, PRIME Program
Medical Center Blvd, Winston-Salem, NC 27157
Office: 336-716-8545 ahowlett@wakehealth.edu

TanYa M. Gwathmey, MS, PhD

Assistant Professor, Department of Surgery
Co-Director, Hypertension Core Laboratory
Director, PRIME Program
Medical Center Blvd, Winston-Salem, NC 27157
Office: 336-716-9524 | Core Lab: 336-716-3553
Fax: 336-716-2456 tgwathme@wakehealth.edu

The Office of Postdoctoral Affairs

WAKE FOREST
UNIVERSITY

GRADUATE SCHOOL of
ARTS & SCIENCES

Wake Forest®
School of Medicine

WINSTON
SALEM
STATE
UNIVERSITY